

Contents

| | |
|-----------------|-----|
| Acknowledgments | vii |
| Introduction | ix |

PART I

The Globalization of Sterilization

| | | |
|---|---|----|
| 1 | The Birth Control Movement in Puerto Rico | 3 |
| 2 | Gender Awareness across Generations | 20 |

PART II

Cultural Continuities and Urban Change

| | | |
|---|--|-----|
| 3 | The Velez Family: Poverty, the Cancer Scare, and Hysterectomies | 45 |
| 4 | The Robles Family: Social Change and Gender Struggle | 61 |
| 5 | The Gomez Family: Under the Knife Again—Reversing La Operación | 78 |
| 6 | The Morales and Rivera Families: Tough Love and Sterile Choices | 102 |

PART III

Reproductive Rights and an Integral Model of Reproductive Freedom

| | | |
|---|---|-----|
| 7 | Ideologies and Inequities in the Health Care System | 125 |
|---|---|-----|

8 Toward an Integral Model of Reproductive Freedom 142

Appendix: Genealogical Charts 157

Notes 163

References 167

Index 179