

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	ix

PART I

The Globalization of Sterilization

1	The Birth Control Movement in Puerto Rico	3
2	Gender Awareness across Generations	20

PART II

Cultural Continuities and Urban Change

3	The Velez Family: Poverty, the Cancer Scare, and Hysterectomies	45
4	The Robles Family: Social Change and Gender Struggle	61
5	The Gomez Family: Under the Knife Again—Reversing La Operación	78
6	The Morales and Rivera Families: Tough Love and Sterile Choices	102

PART III

Reproductive Rights and an Integral Model of Reproductive Freedom

7	Ideologies and Inequities in the Health Care System	125
---	-----------------------------------------------------	-----

8 Toward an Integral Model of Reproductive Freedom 142

Appendix: Genealogical Charts 157

Notes 163

References 167

Index 179